FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

ST JOSEPH'S MINISTRIES NAMES HARDY-FAUBER CEO

Emmitsburg, Maryland ----- Tammy Hardy-Fauber has been selected to serve as the new Chief Executive Officer of St. Joseph's Ministries. The CEO position will have responsibilities including St. Vincent's Care Center, Villa St. Michael, St. Catherine's Nursing Home; as well as overseeing support services such as finance, facilities, housekeeping, laundry, and dining services. Hardy-Fauber's role will be to advance the strategic plan for the Provincial House and to enhance the delivery of our long-term care services.

Hardy-Fauber brings a wealth of knowledge and skill to her new position with over 25 years of senior care experience. Her professional background covers a number of roles including; certified nursing assistant (CNA), marketing, activities director, and finally as an administrator. She most recently served as executive director and licensed nursing home administrator for Oak Springs in Warrenton, Virginia. A very important quality Hardy-Fauber brings to St. Joseph's Ministries is her experience in Person Respected Care, a philosophical approach adopted by our administrators in our long-care ministries.

Hardy-Fauber earned an AA in Business Administration from Strayer University and later went on to graduate Summa Cum Laude with a BA in Organizational Leadership from Mountain State University. She is an active member in the Virginia Health Care Administrators (VHCA) and the American College of Health Care Administrators (ACHCA).

Hardy-Fauber will officially assume role of CEO on Monday, February 21, 2011.
