

The Seton Legacy DVD
a two-time award winner!

On Saturday, November 14, the biggest and brightest talent in media production filled the ballroom at the National Press Club in Washington DC to capacity, honoring the most creative and skilled work submitted for the 2009 DC Peer Awards. The event marked the culmination of this year's competition for work submitted media producers and talent in the Mid-Atlantic region. Among the winners was The Seton Legacy DVD, produced and directed by Wendy Wilmowski, President/Producer of Wayfarer Entertainment, Georgetown, MD. The DVD is a 30 minute documentary of Saint Elizabeth Ann Seton's life, work, and continuing legacy of charity today.

The winning categories were:

- Gold – Acting/Drama, Vanessa Richardson, portraying Mother Elizabeth Ann Seton
- Silver – Directing, Wendy Wilmowski of Wayfarer Entertainment
- Silver – Scriptwriting, Lori Stewart, director of development and public relations and Wendy Wilmowski
- Bronze – Director of Photography, Matt Gottshalk and Christopher Winter

"We are thrilled to have received this recognition for The Seton Legacy DVD," commented Lori Stewart. "The reenactments and archival images of Saint Elizabeth Ann's children, friend, and herself provide a visual narrative of her remarkable life that spans the full spectrum of human experience. It was such an honor to be a part of product that represents Saint Elizabeth Ann's continuing legacy of charity."

The Seton Legacy DVD is available for purchase online at the Seton Shrine Gift Shop, <http://www.setonshrine.org/>, in the video section, for $18.95.
