

Province/ Congregation	Year	Event
Sisters of Charity of St. Joseph's, Emmitsburg	1809	Saint Elizabeth Ann Seton founded the Sisters of Charity of Saint Joseph's at Emmitsburg, Maryland. This was the first native-sisterhood of religious women to be established in the United States.
Sisters of Charity of St. Joseph's, Emmitsburg	1810	Saint Elizabeth Ann Seton founded Saint Joseph's Academy and Free School, the first Catholic School for girls staffed by sisters in the United States.
Sisters of Charity of Nazareth	1812	Foundation of the Sisters of Charity of Nazareth on St. Thomas Farm, Bardstown, Kentucky, by Father John David, assistant to Bishop Benedict Flaget, first bishop west of the Appalachians. The desire for a community of sisters was Bishop Flaget's but he assigned this responsibility to Father David.
Sisters of Charity of Nazareth	1813	Catherine Spalding joined the initial group of Sisters of Charity of Nazareth and was elected Mother Superior. The Sisters were given a temporary rule of life designed by Father David.
Sisters of Charity of Nazareth	1814	The Sisters of Charity of Nazareth opened the first boarding school for girls at St. Thomas.
Sisters of Charity of St. Joseph's, Emmitsburg	1814	Saint Elizabeth Ann Seton sent the first group of sisters to begin a new mission beyond Emmitsburg. They managed Saint Joseph's Asylum in Philadelphia, the first Catholic Orphanage in the United States.
Sisters of Charity of Nazareth	1815	The Sisters of Charity of Nazareth adopted the same as the Sisters of Charity of St. Joseph's at Emmitsburg which was based on the Common Rules of the Daughters of
Sisters of Charity of Nazareth	1816	The Sisters of Charity of Nazareth made Vows for first time, February 2.
Sisters of Charity of St. Joseph's, Emmitsburg	1817	The Sisters of Charity from Emmitsburg began St. Patrick's Asylum, New York City, as the Roman Catholic Orphan Asylum, which was the first Catholic orphan asylum in New York City. It received both boys and girls. The Sisters of Charity of New York administered the program after 1846. In 1851 the boys were moved to a new building at 51st Street and Fifth Avenue. The girls went to 52nd Street and Madison Avenue.
Sisters of Charity of St. Joseph's, Emmitsburg	1817	Saint Elizabeth Ann Seton sent Sisters of Charity to establish the New York Roman Catholic Orphan Asylum, the first Catholic Orphanage in New York.
Sisters of Charity of Nazareth	1819	The Sisters of Charity established Bethlehem, the first Catholic school in Bardstown. It is today the only Catholic secondary school of the Archdiocese of Louisville outside the city of Louisville, Kentucky.
Sisters of Charity of Nazareth	1822	The Sisters of Charity of Nazareth motherhouse moved from St. Thomas Farm to current site two miles north of Bardstown, Kentucky.
Sisters of Charity of St. Joseph's, Emmitsburg	1822	The Sisters of Charity from Emmitsburg began St. Patrick's School, New York City, the first Catholic school in New York City. The Sisters of Charity of New York operated the school after 1846. It is still in operation today, run by the Archdiocese of New York and carrying on the mission, "To Teach As Jesus Did."
Sisters of Charity of St. Joseph's, Emmitsburg	1822	The Sisters of Charity from Emmitsburg began St. Patrick's Pay School, New York City, and carried on Elizabeth Seton's tradition of opening a pay school wherever she opened a free school. However it closed in 1825 because it was not carrying itself financially.
Sisters of Charity of St. Joseph's, Emmitsburg	1823	Mother Rose White, successor to Mother Seton, and her council sent sisters to assume responsibility for the Nursing Service of the Baltimore Infirmary, Baltimore, Maryland, which was the first healthcare ministry of the Sisters of Charity in the United States.
Sisters of Charity of St. Joseph's, Emmitsburg	1828	The Sisters of Charity from Emmitsburg went to St. Louis to establish the first Catholic hospital in the United States, Saint Louis Hospital, which became the Mullanphy Hospital and later De Paul Health Center.
Sisters of Charity of Our Lady of Mercy	1829	Bishop John England, first Bishop of Charleston, founded the Sisters of Charity of Our Lady of Mercy, the first congregation of women religious in South Carolina. According to oral tradition the original habit came from Emmitsburg.
Sisters of Charity of St. Joseph's, Emmitsburg	1829	Four Sisters of Charity from Emmitsburg took charge of the first cathedral school with six orphans under their care and also started the first asylum, Saint Peter's Orphan Asylum in Cincinnati, Ohio.
Sisters of Charity of Our Lady of Mercy	1830	The Sisters of Charity of Our Lady of Mercy began Our Lady of Mercy Academy, the first Catholic school for girls in the Diocese of Charleston, South Carolina. The Academy began in the sisters' home.
Sisters of Charity of St. Joseph's, Emmitsburg	1830	The Sisters of Charity from Emmitsburg began St. Patrick's Academy, New York City, as a pay school but it was destroyed by fire in 1834.
Sisters of Charity of Nazareth	1831	Mother Catherine Spalding of the Sisters of Charity of Nazareth established Presentation Academy, the first Catholic school, in Louisville, Kentucky, which is still flourishing.
Sisters of Charity of Our Lady of Mercy	1831	The Sisters of Charity of Our Lady of Mercy began the first Catholic orphanage for girls in the sisters' home, a rented house in Charleston.
Sisters of Charity of St. Joseph's, Emmitsburg	1831	St. Peter's School, Barclay Street, New York City, was a co-educational elementary school responding to the needs of the time. It closed in 1940 because the area became a business district.
Sisters of Charity of St. Joseph's, Emmitsburg	1831	The Sisters of Charity from Emmitsburg began St. James Orphan Asylum, which was the first Catholic orphan asylum in Brooklyn, New York. In 1839 the children were transferred to St. Paul's Orphan Asylum, which the Sisters of Charity of New York administered after 1846.

Province/ Congregation	Year	Event
Sisters of Charity of St. Joseph's, Emmitsburg	1831	The Sisters of Charity from Emmitsburg began St. James School to answer the need for an additional school in Brooklyn, New York. When the Sisters' convent was transferred to St. Paul's Parish in 1839, the Sisters traveled by carriage to St. James. The school was administered by the Sisters of Charity of New York after 1846; in 1855 the Sisters withdrew from the school, and they were replaced by the Sisters of Mercy.
Sisters of Charity of Nazareth	1832	Mother Catherine Spalding of the Sisters of Charity of Nazareth established St. Vincent Orphanage, the first Catholic orphanage in Louisville, Kentucky.
Sisters of Charity of St. Joseph's, Emmitsburg	1832	In 1832 and 1834, Asiatic cholera scourged the United States. Hospitals of the Sisters of Charity of St. Joseph's staffed by the Sisters in St. Louis and New Orleans offered to care for the sufferers. In Philadelphia, the Sisters labored for months at the Almshouse and emergency hospitals, and in Baltimore they staffed two cholera hospitals and the Almshouse. Albany, Boston, New York City, and Washington, D.C., were other areas where the Sisters at this time did emergency nursing. Though records are not complete, at least four Sisters died in the 1832 cholera epidemic.
Sisters of Charity of St. Joseph's, Emmitsburg	1833	The Sisters of Charity from Emmitsburg began St. Joseph's Select School (for girls only) which under the Sisters of Charity of New York became the Academy of Mt. St. Vincent in 1847 and subsequently the College of Mount Saint Vincent. It is still carrying on the mission of education "in the Catholic tradition."
Sisters of Charity of St. Joseph's, Emmitsburg	1833	The Sisters of Charity from Emmitsburg began St. Joseph's Half-Orphan Asylum, New York, in response to the cholera epidemic of 1832 which left many children with just one parent. After 1846 this facility was administered by the Sisters of Charity of New York until its merger with St. Patrick's in 1852.
Sisters of Charity of St. Joseph's, Emmitsburg	1833	The Sisters of Charity from Emmitsburg established St. Mary's School, Grand Street, New York City, to address the needs of girls in a bustling neighborhood due to the opening of the Erie Canal. The Sisters of Charity of New York staffed and managed the school until it closed in 1940 when the area became totally commercial.
Sisters of Charity of St. Joseph's, Emmitsburg	1835	The Sisters of Charity from Emmitsburg began St. Mary's Academy, New York City, and the revenue supported St. Mary's Free School. The Sisters of Charity of New York administered the school after 1846 until it closed in 1903 due to the commercialization of the neighborhood.
Sisters of Charity of Nazareth	1836	Mother Catherine Spalding of the Sisters of Charity of Nazareth established St. Vincent Infirmary in Louisville, which became Kentucky's largest hospital, St. Joseph Infirmary.
Sisters of Charity of Our Lady of Mercy	1837	The Sisters of Charity of Our Lady of Mercy founded St. Mary's Free School for Girls, the first such educational institution in the Diocese, in Charleston, South Carolina.
Sisters of Charity of Our Lady of Mercy	1837	The Sisters of Charity of Our Lady of Mercy cared for yellow fever patients in a temporary hospital for the Brotherhood of San Marino, a society of working men established by Bishop England in the diocese of Charleston, South Carolina.
Sisters of Charity of St. Joseph's, Emmitsburg	1837	St. Paul's School, Brooklyn, New York, continued to serve its population as many immigrant groups in turn moved into the neighborhood. It closed in 1980 as registration declined.
Sisters of Charity of St. Joseph's, Emmitsburg	1838	St. James Free School, Manhattan, New York, opened in response to the need of the children in Cathedral Parish. The Metropolitan Catholic Almanac listed St. James has having from five to seven hundred children. The Sisters withdrew in 1942 due to decreased vocations in the war years. They were replaced by the Sisters of St. John the Baptist.
Sisters of Charity of St. Joseph's, Emmitsburg	1838	Simon Gabriel Bruté, bishop of the Diocese of Vincennes, set up a boarding/pay day school and a separate free school in Vincennes. Ann (Sister Aurelia) Brown, one of the pupils, later became the first vocation to the Daughters of Charity from Indiana.
Sisters of Charity of St. Joseph's, Emmitsburg	1839	The Sisters of Charity from Emmitsburg began St. Paul's Orphanage, Brooklyn, New York, when the Sisters who had been caring for the orphans at St. James moved into a new building at Congress Street, Brooklyn, New York. The Sisters of Charity of New York administered the orphanage after 1846 until 1873 when most of the children were absorbed by St. Joseph's Asylum, Brooklyn.
Sisters of Charity of St. Joseph's, Emmitsburg	1840	The Sisters of Charity from Emmitsburg operated St. Peter's Select Male Infant School, New York City, in order to minister to some of the younger boys from St. Peter's Free School which had on register about seven hundred children. The school closed in 1846.
Sisters of Charity of St. Joseph's, Emmitsburg	1840	The Sisters of Charity from Emmitsburg established St. Philomena's Academy, Brooklyn, New York, in the basement of St. Paul's Church. The school closed in 1847 and many girls transferred to The Academy of Mount Saint Vincent.
Sisters of Charity of St. Joseph's, Emmitsburg	1840	The Sisters of Charity from Emmitsburg began Mount Saint Vincent's Hospital, the first Catholic hospital for persons with mental illness, Baltimore, Maryland. This later became The Mount Hope Retreat and The Seton Institute.
Sisters of Charity of Our Lady of Mercy	1841	The Sisters of Charity of Our Lady of Mercy provided sisters to teach in the first school for free African American children in Charleston, South Carolina. Established by Bishop England, it was the first such school under Catholic auspices in Charleston and continued until 1848.

Province/ Congregation	Year	Event
Sisters of Charity of Our Lady of Mercy	1841	The Sisters of Charity of Our Lady of Mercy community moved from rented buildings to their first Motherhouse, 120 Queen Street, Charleston, South Carolina, which was simultaneously a convent, orphanage, and academy.
Sisters of Charity of St. Joseph's, Emmitsburg	1841	Saint Mary's Asylum and School was the first foundation of the Sisters of Charity from Emmitsburg in the Diocese of Mobile, Alabama.
Sisters of Charity of St. Joseph's, Emmitsburg	1842	The Sisters of Charity from Emmitsburg assumed charge of St. Aloysius Boy's Orphan Asylum but withdrew in 1846.
Sisters of Charity of Our Lady of Mercy	1844	The first Constitution for the Sisters of Charity of Our Lady of Mercy was approved by Bishop Ignatius Reynolds, second Bishop of Charleston. Based on the Regulations of the Sisters of Charity of St. Joseph's from Emmitsburg which was the American adaptation of the Common Rules of the Daughters of Charity of St. Vincent de Paul. The rule remained in effect until 1949.
Sisters of Charity of Our Lady of Mercy	1844	Mother Teresa Barry became the first elected Superior of the Sisters of Charity of Our Lady of Mercy. Prior to 1844 the Community officers were appointed by the Bishop of the diocese of Charleston, South Carolina.
Sisters of Charity of Our Lady of Mercy	1845	The Sisters of Charity of Our Lady of Mercy established the first branch house in Savannah, Georgia.
Sisters of Charity of St. Joseph's, Emmitsburg	1845	One year after arriving in Detroit, the Sisters of Charity from Emmitsburg founded Saint Vincent's Hospital, the first hospital in Michigan and the first in the Northwest Territory. Five years later, it was renamed Saint Mary's Hospital.
Sisters of Charity of St. Joseph's, Emmitsburg	1846	The Sisters of Charity from Emmitsburg opened the first mission in the Territory of Wisconsin before it became a state. Three sisters moved to a facility known as Saint Rose's Asylum that served as both a residence with a school named Saint Joseph's Academy. The first orphan was received there in 1848.
Sisters of Charity of St. Vincent de Paul of New York	1846	The Sisters of Charity of St. Vincent de Paul of New York were established as an independent community under Archbishop John Hughes, archbishop of New York. Sister Elizabeth Boyle was elected the first Mother General.
Sisters of Charity of New York	1847	The Sisters of Charity of New York established a new motherhouse at McGown's Pass, now part of Central Park. In 1859 the Sisters of Charity of New York moved the motherhouse to Mount Saint Vincent, Riverdale, New York.
Sisters of Charity of Halifax	1849	The Sisters of Charity received the first orphan entrusted to their care in Halifax, thus beginning a long history of attending children in need. In 1868 St. Joseph orphanage was built and staffed by the Sisters of Charity of Halifax.
Sisters of Charity of New York	1849	The Sisters of Charity of New York sent the first Sisters to Halifax, Nova Scotia.
Sisters of Charity of New York	1849	Sister Mary Angela Hughes, a Sister of Charity of New York, opened Saint Vincent's Hospital, the first Catholic Hospital in New York State.
Sisters of Charity of St. Joseph's, Emmitsburg	1849	In 1849 and 1850, another outbreak of cholera occurred. The Sisters of Charity of St. Joseph's put their hospitals in Buffalo, Detroit, Milwaukee, St. Louis, and Troy, at the service of the sick, and much home nursing was also done.
Sisters of Charity of St. Joseph's, Emmitsburg	1850	The Sisters of Charity at Emmitsburg formally united with the Daughters of Charity of St. Vincent de Paul of Paris. The Daughters of Charity Province of the United States was erected November 1, 1850.
Sisters of Charity of Leavenworth	1851	Sister Xavier Ross withdrew from Sisters of Charity of Nazareth and along with a few other sisters founded the Sisters of Charity of Nashville, Tennessee. Mother Xavier soon became their leader.
Sisters of Charity of Nazareth	1851	Sisters of Charity of Nazareth purchased twenty-five shares in Louisville-Nashville Railroad when it was first built in Kentucky. Because of this, Nazareth has a train station on their property to serve sisters, students, and visitors.
Daughters of Charity, Province of the United States	1852	The sisters from Emmitsburg established the Roman Catholic Orphan Asylum and Free School as the first Daughters of Charity mission in California, San Francisco.
Sisters of Charity of Cincinnati	1852	The Sisters of Charity of Cincinnati became a diocesan congregation under John Purcell, bishop of Cincinnati.
Sisters of Charity of Cincinnati	1852	The Sisters of Charity of Cincinnati founded St. John's, later Good Samaritan Hospital, the first Catholic hospital in Cincinnati.
Daughters of Charity, Province of the United States	1853	Saint Ann's Infant Asylum has evolved over the years as societal needs have changed. Saint Ann's Home is now Anna House, part of the Sarah Community, a retirement facility.
Sisters of Charity of Cincinnati	1854	The Sisters of Charity of Cincinnati established Mount St. Vincent Motherhouse and Academy.
Sisters of Charity of Our Lady of Mercy	1854	The Sisters of Charity of Our Lady of Mercy were sent to staff Immaculate Conception Academy, the first Catholic school for girls in Columbia, South Carolina.
Sisters of Charity of the Immaculate Conception	1854	The Sisters of Charity of the Immaculate Conception were founded in Saint John, New Brunswick, and were the first English-speaking religious congregation to be founded in Canada. Honoria Conway, an Irish immigrant, who, along with three pioneering Sisters, began their work in caring for the orphans of Saint John, New Brunswick, where there was an epidemic of cholera.
Daughters of Charity, Province of the United States	1856	The Daughters of Charity from Emmitsburg established the Los Angeles Charitable Institution, the first orphan asylum in Los Angeles, California.

Province/ Congregation	Year	Event
Sisters of Charity of Halifax	1856	The Sisters of Charity of Halifax established the first Motherhouse of the newly approved congregation at St. Mary's Convent, in the Cathedral parish; it later moved to a new building in Rockingham outside the city limits in 1873.
Sisters of Charity of Cincinnati	1857	The Sisters of Charity of Cincinnati founded St. Mary's Academy in Dayton, Ohio, the congregation's first mission outside Cincinnati.
Sisters of Charity of Halifax	1857	The Sisters of Charity of Halifax opened their first mission in St. Patrick parish, the north end of Halifax.
Sisters of Charity of New York	1857	The Sisters of Charity of New York opened St. Mary's School as the first Catholic school in Yonkers.
Sisters of Charity of the Immaculate Conception	1857	The Sisters of Charity of the Immaculate Conception founded the Academie de Madawaska at Ste Basile, New Brunswick, to reach out for educational purposes to northern New Brunswick Acadians who were French-speaking people.
Daughters of Charity, Province of the United States	1858	Saint Vincent's Institution is now a division of SSM DePaul, St. Louis, Missouri.
Daughters of Charity, Province of the United States	1858	The Daughters of Charity established the first English-speaking school as well as the first orphanage in Santa Barbara, California. The Daughters of Charity became among the first women to form a corporation in California, incorporating their orphanage as the Roman Catholic Orphan Asylum.
Sisters of Charity of Cincinnati	1858	The Sisters of Charity of Cincinnati trained novices for one year in preparation for beginning of Sisters of Charity of Saint Elizabeth in Newark, New Jersey.
Sisters of Charity of Halifax	1858	The Sisters of Charity of Halifax opened their first mission outside of the city of Halifax in Dartmouth, Nova Scotia; later other missions opened in Cape Breton and Western Nova Scotia.
Sisters of Charity of Leavenworth	1858	Foundation of the Sisters of Charity of Leavenworth as a congregation under Bishop John Baptist Miège, S.J., who agreed to receive the Sisters of Charity to his Vicariate.
Sisters of Charity of Leavenworth	1858	The first Sisters of Charity arrived in Leavenworth: five professed, one novice, two postulants and one orphan. The sisters began teaching and caring for orphans immediately.
Sisters of Charity of Saint Elizabeth	1858	Departure from Newark of the five candidates sent by Bishop James Roosevelt Bayley to the Cincinnati Sisters of Charity for their initial religious formation. These women formed the nucleus of the Sisters of Charity of Saint Elizabeth.
Sisters of Charity of the Immaculate Conception	1858	The Sisters of Charity of the Immaculate Conception established a "select school for girls" in 1858 following the pattern set by Mother Elizabeth Boyle of the Sisters of Charity of New York and Mother Seton of Emmitsburg.
Daughters of Charity, Province of the United States	1859	House of the Guardian Angel was established as a social service agency in St. Louis, Missouri.
Sisters of Charity of Leavenworth	1859	The Sisters of Charity arrived in Leavenworth and opened St. Mary's Academy for Young Ladies in Leavenworth, Kansas.
Sisters of Charity of Saint Elizabeth	1859	The Sisters of Charity of Saint Elizabeth were established as a diocesan congregation under James Roosevelt Bayley, bishop of Newark. Sister Mary Xavier Mehegan and Sister Mary Catherine Nevins, appointed by the New York Sisters of Charity to assist Bishop Bayley in the establishment of a congregation of Sisters of Charity for his diocese.
Sisters of Charity of Saint Elizabeth	1860	Transfer of the motherhouse of the Sisters of Charity of Saint Elizabeth from Newark on the Feast of the Visitation, to the building now called Seton House (the former Seton Hall College) near the Park Avenue entrance to the present campus of the College of Saint Elizabeth, Convent Station, New Jersey.
Sisters of Charity of Saint Elizabeth	1860	Opening of the first academic year of the Academy of Saint Elizabeth at Convent Station, New Jersey.
Daughters of Charity, Province of the United States	1861	The Daughters of Charity from Emmitsburg began their first mission in Chicago at the School of the Holy Name.
Daughters of Charity, Province of the United States	1861	The Daughters of Charity served in fifteen states and the District of Columbia during the Civil War until 1865.
Sisters of Charity of Cincinnati	1861	The Sisters of Charity of Cincinnati nursed victims of the Civil War on the Shiloh battlefield; Corinth, Mississippi; and Camp Dennison, Ohio.
Sisters of Charity of Nazareth	1861	The Sisters of Charity of Nazareth nursed in Louisville, Kentucky, during the Civil War.
Sisters of Charity of Our Lady of Mercy	1861	The Sisters of Charity of Our Lady of Mercy nursed victims of the Civil War at Roper Marine Hospital, Charleston, South Carolina, and at White Sulphur Springs, Virginia.
Daughters of Charity, Province of the United States	1862	The Daughters of Charity from Emmitsburg established first mission outside of the United States in Canada, Saint Mary's School, Toronto, Ontario, Canada.
Sisters of Charity of New York	1862	The Sisters of Charity of New York transformed St. Vincent's Convent to become St. Joseph's Military Hospital in Central Park, New York, in order to care for Civil War casualties. Sister Mary Ulrica O'Reilly, who had entered the Sisters of Charity at Emmitsburg in 1839, nursed Captain William Seton, 4th New York regiment, back to life from near death as a result of his injuries at the battle of Antietam. Young Seton was the grandson of Mother Seton.

Province/ Congregation	Year	Event
Sisters of Charity of Our Lady of Mercy	1863	During the Civil War a bomb landed on the Motherhouse grounds of the Sisters of Charity of Our Lady of Mercy prompting sisters to evacuate boarders and orphans to Sumter, South Carolina, where the Community established St. Joseph's Academy, the first Catholic school for girls.
Sisters of Charity of Saint Elizabeth	1863	Appointment of Sisters of Charity of Saint Elizabeth for St. Peter Elementary School, the community's first mission in Jersey City, New Jersey.
Daughters of Charity, Province of the United States	1864	The Daughters of Charity from Emmitsburg established Saint Mary's School and Asylum, their first mission in Nevada, in the silver mining town of Virginia City. The Daughters were the first community of women in Virginia City and most likely the first in Nevada.
Sisters of Charity of Halifax	1864	The Sisters of Charity of Halifax opened their first mission outside of Nova Scotia, Holy Family Convent, Bathurst West, New Brunswick; later other missions opened in Canada in the provinces of British Columbia, Alberta, Manitoba, Ontario, and the Yukon and Northwest Territories.
Sisters of Charity of Leavenworth	1864	The Sisters of Charity arrived in Leavenworth and opened St. John's Hospital, Leavenworth, the first civilian hospital in the territory of Kansas. Sister Joanna Bruner, a Sister of Charity arrived in Leavenworth, was the first qualified nurse in the territory and the first woman to hold the post of a hospital administrator.
Sisters of Charity of Nazareth	1864	The first Sister of Charity of Nazareth gave her life nursing Confederate and Union troops during the Civil War.
Sisters of Charity of Cincinnati	1865	The Sisters of Charity of Cincinnati founded St. Vincent's Hospital in Santa Fe, New Mexico Territory.
Sisters of Charity of Leavenworth	1865	The Sisters of Charity of Leavenworth began to go out to other Kansas towns to teach with missions in Lawrence and Topeka.
Sisters of Charity of Nazareth	1865	President Lincoln sends a document ordering protection for the Sisters of Charity of Nazareth during the United States Civil War.
Sisters of Charity of Leavenworth	1866	The Sisters of Charity of Leavenworth established St. Vincent's Orphanage in Leavenworth.
Sisters of Charity of Leavenworth	1867	The Sisters of Charity of Leavenworth went East to beg in Ohio and Pennsylvania for one and a half years; first of many such trips.
Sisters of Charity of Saint Elizabeth	1867	Opening of St. Joseph's Hospital, Paterson, New Jersey, the first hospital of the Sisters of Charity of Saint Elizabeth.
Sisters of Charity of Leavenworth	1868	The Sisters of Charity of Leavenworth acquired Muncie land for building a combined Mother House and St. Mary's Academy.
Sisters of Charity of New York	1868	The Sisters of Charity of New York began Saint Mary's Female Hospital, the congregation's first hospital in Brooklyn. Free care was given to women living in Brooklyn.
Daughters of Charity, Province of the United States	1869	The Daughters of Charity from Emmitsburg became first women to form a corporation in southern California, incorporating their hospital as Los Angeles Infirmary and the orphanage as Los Angeles Orphan Asylum.
Sisters of Charity of Leavenworth	1869	The first group of Sisters of Charity of Leavenworth went to Helena, Montana.
Sisters of Charity of New York	1869	Sister Mary Irene Fitzgibbon, a Sister of Charity of New York, opened The New York Foundling Hospital.
Sisters of Charity of Cincinnati	1870	The Sisters of Charity of Cincinnati founded St. Joseph Academy in Trinidad, Colorado.
Sisters of Charity of Cincinnati	1870	The Sisters of Charity of Cincinnati assisted in the establishment of the Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill.
Sisters of Charity of Leavenworth	1870	The Sisters of Charity of Leavenworth opened St. Mary's Academy on the new Muncie land site (location of current University of Saint Mary); sisters moved to this location. The Sisters of Charity of Leavenworth continued to accept calls to different parts of Kansas, Colorado, and Montana to staff schools and hospitals.
Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill	1870	Sister Aloysia Lowe and Sisters of Charity of Cincinnati from Mount St. Joseph arrived in Altoona, Pennsylvania, a part of the Diocese of Pittsburgh, to found a community in the diocese.
Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill	1870	The Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill are established as an independent diocesan congregation with Mother Aloysia Lowe as the founding mother of the congregation. Mother Aloysia took charge of St. John's School in Altoona. A separate class was established for older girl students and named St. John's Academy.
Sisters of Charity of Nazareth	1871	The Sisters of Charity of Nazareth staffed first schools for African American children in Louisville and Bardstown, Kentucky.
Sisters of Charity of Our Lady of Mercy	1871	In gratitude for the care given to Union soldiers in prisons and hospitals in Charleston, South Carolina, during the Civil War, the United States Congress granted an appropriation of $12,000 to help the Sisters of Charity of Our Lady of Mercy rebuild the girls' orphanage.
Sisters of Charity of Leavenworth	1872	The Sisters of Charity of Leavenworth staffed Holy Epiphany School for African American children in Leavenworth and relinquished the school to the Oblate Sisters of Divine Providence in 1888. Subsequently The Sisters of Charity of Leavenworth staffed schools for African American children in Kansas City and Topeka.
Sisters of Charity of Cincinnati	1873	The Sisters of Charity of Cincinnati founded St. Joseph Infant and Maternity Home in Cincinnati.

Province/ Congregation	Year	Event
Sisters of Charity of Cincinnati	1873	The Sisters of Charity of Cincinnati founded the first Catholic co-educational high school at St. James in Bay City, Michigan.
Sisters of Charity of Nazareth	1873	The Sisters of Charity of Nazareth were first and only community to respond to the request of the Louisville City officials to staff St. John Eruptive Hospital, an isolation unit for small pox patients.
Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill	1873	The Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill sent Sisters to Saints Simon and Jude Parish to establish a school, Blairsville, Pennsylvania. This was the congregation's first mission established from the Motherhouse.
Daughters of Charity, Province of the United States	1874	The Daughters of Charity opened Saint Mary's Hospital, Saginaw, Michigan. The sisters visited lumber camps to sell five dollar tickets entitle the worker to total hospital care, including medicine and surgery. This health insurance program was among the first in the nation.
Daughters of Charity, Province of the United States	1874	Four Daughters of Charity arrived in the bustling town of Saginaw, Michigan, and founded the city's first hospital, Saint Mary's Hospital, which was also the only hospital north of Detroit.
Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill	1874	The Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill founded Sacred Heart School, East Liberty, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania.
Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill	1876	The Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill founded St. John the Evangelist School, located on the South Side of Pittsburgh.
Daughters of Charity, Province of the United States	1878	Again in 1878, New Orleans and Donaldsonville were attacked with yellow fever, and eight Sisters of Charity from Emmitsburg on duty in the former city died. In neighboring Mississippi, also severely affected, the Sisters nursed at Natchez, Port Gibson, Yazoo City, and Vicksburg, losing one Sister at the last location.
Sisters of Charity of New York	1879	The Sisters of Charity of New York established Saint Vincent's Hospital in Westchester which was the first Hospital in New York State for the mentally ill.
Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill	1879	The Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill numbered fifty members and held the first community election. Mother Aloysia Lowe was elected Superior.
Sisters of Charity of Saint Elizabeth	1880	Occupation of the new and much larger Motherhouse and Academy of Saint Elizabeth under construction since 1878.
Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill	1880	The Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill opened St. Mary's School for Boys in Blairsville, Pennsylvania.
Sisters of Charity of the Immaculate Conception	1880	The Sisters of Charity of the Immaculate Conception established a convent-school in Bouctouche (Acadian) which became a first class institution. As well several Acadians became Sisters of Charity of the Immaculate Conception and made their novitiate and pronounced their vows there.
Sisters of Charity of Our Lady of Mercy	1882	The Sisters of Charity of Our Lady of Mercy established St. Francis Xavier Hospital, Charleston, the first Catholic hospital in South Carolina.
Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill	1882	Mother Aloysia Lowe purchased the Stokes Mansion and the Jennings Farm for the Sisters of Charity and renamed the property Seton Hill. The Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill established St. Benedict School in Greensburg, Pennsylvania, and Immaculate Conception School in Irwin, Pennsylvania.
Sisters of Charity of Leavenworth	1883	The Sisters of Charity of Leavenworth opened St. Vincent's Orphanage in Denver, Colorado.
Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill	1883	The Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill opened Saint Joseph Motherhouse and Academy in the Stokes Mansion.
Sisters of Charity of Halifax	1884	The Sisters of Charity of Halifax opened a Catholic girls high school, St. Patrick, in Halifax.
Sisters of Charity of New York	1884	The Sisters of Charity of New York began Saint Agatha's Home in Nanuet for destitute children in Rockland County, New York.
Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill	1885	The Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill founded St. Philip School in Crafton, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania.
Sisters of Charity of Halifax	1886	The Sisters of Charity of Halifax opened the first hospital in Halifax, the Halifax Infirmary.
Sisters of Charity of Our Lady of Mercy	1886	The Sisters of Charity of Our Lady of Mercy survived a major earthquake in the region of Charleston, South Carolina.
Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill	1886	The Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill established St. James School in the West End of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania.
Daughters of Charity, Province of the United States	1887	To raise funds for construction of the new hospital, the Daughters developed a highly successful program of selling prepaid insurance to laborers in the lumber camps and sawmills. Five dollars would ensure that the purchaser received up to a year's medical, surgical, and nursing care, along with room and board at Saint Mary's Hospital, Saginaw, Michigan. This plan was one of the first of its kind in the United States.
Sisters of Charity of Halifax	1887	The Sisters of Charity of Halifax sent sisters to the United States to staff St. Patrick school, Roxbury, Massachusetts, and later opened missions in New York, New Jersey, New Hampshire, and the state of Washington.
Sisters of Charity of Halifax	1887	The Sisters of Charity of Halifax opened the first home for aged women, Our Lady of All Souls, in Halifax.

Province/ Congregation	Year	Event
Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill	1887	The Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill permanently established the congregation's Motherhouse at Seton Hill in Greensburg, Pennsylvania, then a part of the Pittsburgh Diocese.
Daughters of Charity, Province of the United States	1888	The Sisters of Charity of St. Joseph's on duty in St. Louis nursed in the hospital set up in the Court House at Mount Vernon, Illinois, after the cyclone of late February, 1888.
Sisters of Charity of Halifax	1888	The Sisters of Charity of Halifax opened the Home of the Guardian Angel, a home for single mothers and their babies.
Sisters of Charity of Leavenworth	1888	The Sisters of Charity of Leavenworth received the first thirty-nine teacher's certificates issued in the Leavenworth Diocese.
Sisters of Charity of New York	1888	The Sisters of Charity of New York established Saint Joseph's Hospital, the first Catholic Hospital in Yonkers, New York.
Sisters of Charity of Saint Elizabeth	1888	Opening of St. Mary's School, Waterbury, Connecticut, the first parochial school conducted in New England by the Sisters of Charity of Saint Elizabeth.
Sisters of Charity of the Immaculate Conception	1888	The Sisters of Charity of the Immaculate Conception established the congregation's first nursing home for elders (seniors) in Saint John, New Brunswick.
Daughters of Charity, Province of the United States	1889	The Daughters of Charity from Emmitsburg began the first Daughters of Charity school of nursing at Sisters of Charity Hospital, Buffalo, NY.
Sisters of Charity of New York	1889	The Sisters of Charity of New York established a mission in Nassau, Bahamas, the congregation's first mission outside the United States.
Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill	1889	The Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill moved into the newly built Motherhouse at Seton Hill. St. Joseph Academy also moved to that building. The St. Mary's School for Boys was moved from Blairsville to the Stokes Mansion (the former Motherhouse Building).
Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill	1889	The Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill assigned to St. John Gaulbert in Johnstown, Pennsylvania, and St. Columba's in Cambria, Pennsylvania, survived the 1889 Johnstown Flood. The sisters remained in Johnstown and nursed at the makeshift hospitals erected for the injured. Over 2,200 persons died in the flood. Some of the Sisters of Charity who had entered the community from Johnstown lost some or all of their family members.
Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill	1889	The Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill founded St. John the Baptist School in Scottsdale, Pennsylvania.
Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill	1889	The Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill mourned the death of Mother Aloysia Lowe, the congregation's founding mother, on Christmas Day.
Daughters of Charity, Province of the United States	1890	Sister Cephias Byrne, D.C., became the first licensed woman pharmacist in the State of Illinois, while serving at Saint Joseph's Hospital, Chicago.
Sisters of Charity of Halifax	1890	The Sisters of Charity of Halifax sent sisters to open the congregation's first mission in Bermuda, Mount St. Agnes, located in Hamilton.
Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill	1891	The Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill founded Roselia Foundling and Maternity Hospital in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania.
Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill	1892	The Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill established programs for the education of Practical Nurses at Roselia Foundling and Maternity Hospital.
Daughters of Charity, Province of the United States	1893	In 1893, the Gulf area was devastated by storms and Sisters from the New Orleans houses went to the aid of those affected by the upheaval.
Sisters of Charity of Halifax	1893	The Sisters of Charity of Halifax opened the congregation's first academy in the United States, the Academy of the Assumption, Wellesley Hills, Massachusetts.
Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill	1893	The Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill opened St. Stephen School in Hazelwood, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania.
Sisters of Saint Martha of Antigonish	1894	The Sisters of Saint Martha began with the arrival in 1894 of the first candidate, who along with others, formed an auxiliary community of the Sisters of Charity of Saint Vincent de Paul of Halifax, Nova Scotia, Canada, for the ministry of household management at St. Francis Xavier College.
Daughters of Charity, Province of the United States	1896	The Daughters of Charity from Emmitsburg sent the first sister to foreign missions, Sister Catherine Thumel Buschman, a widow, who departed for China and remained there for thirty years until her death in Shanghai.
Sisters of Charity of Leavenworth	1896	Forty-four young women arrived from Ireland to enter the Novitiate of the Sisters of Charity of Leavenworth; another group of "forty" arrived in 1903.
Sisters of Charity of Leavenworth	1896	The Sisters of Charity of Leavenworth founded St. Mary's Hospital, Grand Junction, Colorado.
Sisters of Charity of Cincinnati	1897	The Sisters of Charity of Cincinnati founded Santa Maria Italian Educational and Institutional Home for immigrants, the first Catholic settlement house, under the direction of Sisters Blandina and Justina Segale, S.C.
Sisters of Charity of New York	1897	The Sisters of Charity of New York were asked to serve as the first religious administrators and teachers in Grace Institute which was established to serve immigrant women.
Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill	1897	The Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill founded Pittsburgh Hospital. (First named Charity Hospital).
Daughters of Charity, Province of the United States	1898	The Daughters of Charity from Emmitsburg established Saint Vincent's Hospital, their first work in Birmingham, Alabama. This was also the city's first hospital.

Province/ Congregation	Year	Event
Daughters of Charity, Province of the United States	1898	The Supreme Court case Bradfield vs. Roberts involved the Providence Hospital, Washington, D.C., and became a landmark decision in favor of the Daughters of Charity which paved the way for award of federal funds to faith-based organizations with religious sponsorship providing human services (rather than promotion of religion).
Sisters of Charity of Halifax	1898	The Sisters of Charity of Halifax began the congregation's first residence for working women, St. Theresa's Retreat, Halifax; which later offered vocational education courses for residents.
Sisters of Charity of Leavenworth	1899	The Sisters of Charity of Leavenworth founded St. Vincent's Hospital, Billings, Montana.
Sisters of Charity of Saint Elizabeth	1899	Founding of the College of Saint Elizabeth, New Jersey's oldest four-year liberal arts college for women and one of the first Catholic colleges in the United States to grant degrees to women.
Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill	1899	The Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill established St. Luke School in Carnegie, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania.
Sisters of Charity of Leavenworth	1900	The Sisters of Charity of Leavenworth established a nursing school at St. Joseph Hospital, Denver, Colorado.
Sisters of Charity of Our Lady of Mercy	1900	St. Francis Xavier Hospital Nursing School, the first Catholic institution for training nurses in South Carolina, was established in Charleston, South Carolina, by the Sisters of Charity of Our Lady of Mercy.
Sisters of Charity of Our Lady of Mercy	1900	The Sisters of Charity of Our Lady of Mercy provided sisters to staff the first Catholic parochial schools in the Diocese of Charleston, South Carolina.
Sisters of Saint Martha of Antigonish	1900	The Sisters of Saint Martha became an independent congregation.
Daughters of Charity, Province of the United States	1902	The Daughters of Charity from Emmitsburg established Seton Medical Center, Austin, Texas, which is now part of Ascension Health.
Vincentian Sisters of Charity of Pittsburgh	1902	The Vincentian Sisters of Charity were established in 1802 at Braddock, Pennsylvania, United States, as a foundation from the Sisters of Charity of Satu-Mare, Romania, by Mother Emerentiana Handlovits to serve immigrant peoples from what was then considered as Eastern Europe (now Central Europe). The congregation became autonomous in 1915 and received pontifical status in 1951.
Daughters of Charity, Province of the United States	1903	Sister Chrysostom Moynahan, D.C., established Saint Vincent's Hospital School of Nursing in Birmingham, Alabama and graduated the first three nurses trained in the State of Alabama.
Sisters of Charity of New York	1903	The Sisters of Charity of New York established Saint Vincent's Hospital, the first Catholic hospital on Staten Island, New York.
Daughters of Charity, Province of the United States	1905	Daughters of Charity from Emmitsburg founded the Colegio de la Inmaculada Concepcion, Mayaguez, Puerto Rico.
Sisters of Charity of New York	1905	The Sisters of Charity of New York staffed the first Archdiocesan High School, Archbishop Hughes Memorial High School, now known as Cathedral High School in New York City.
Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill	1905	The Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill built a new Charity Hospital and opened Pittsburgh Hospital School of Nursing in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania.
Daughters of Charity, Province of the United States	1906	The Daughters of Charity from Emmitsburg joined first interprovincial mission in America when they collaborated with the French Daughters of Charity at Saint Tomas Hospital, Panama City, Panama.
Sisters of Charity of the Immaculate Conception	1906	The Sisters of Charity of the Immaculate Conception founded the first mission outside of New Brunswick to serve the needs of orphaned children in Prince Albert, Saskatchewan.
Sisters of Charity of Leavenworth	1907	The Sisters of Charity of Leavenworth undertook catechetical instruction at the Federal Penitentiary in Leavenworth, Kansas.
Sisters of Charity of Halifax	1908	The Sisters of Charity of Halifax held the congregation's First General Chapter.
Sisters of Charity of Nazareth	1908	The Sisters of Charity of Nazareth established their first school of nursing, St. Vincent Hospital, Little Rock, Arkansas.
Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill	1908	The Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill founded DePaul Institute, an oral school for the deaf, located in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania.
Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill	1908	Pittsburgh Hospital School of Nursing held the first graduation of nurses, five Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill and five laywomen.
Sisters of Charity of Leavenworth	1909	The Sisters of Charity of Leavenworth dedicated St. Francis Hospital, Topeka, Kansas, and its nursing school.
Sisters of Charity of Saint Elizabeth	1909	Conferred by the University of Chicago the degree of Doctor of Philosophy, summa cum laude, on Sister Helen Angela Dorety, S.C., the first religious woman in the United States to receive a Ph. D.
Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill	1909	The Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill founded Providence Hospital in Beaver Falls, Pennsylvania.
Daughters of Charity, Province of the United States	1910	The Daughters of Charity Province of the United States was divided resulting in the erection of the Eastern Province (Emmitsburg) and the Western Province (Normandy).
Sisters of Charity of New York	1910	The Sisters of Charity of New York opened the College of Mount Saint Vincent in Riverdale, New York.

Province/ Congregation	Year	Event
Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill	1910	The Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill established St. Anselm School in Swissvale, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania.
Sisters of Charity of the Immaculate Conception	1910	The Sisters of Charity of the Immaculate Conception established the first congregational hospital in Prince Albert, Saskatchewan.
Sisters of Charity of Leavenworth	1911	Sixteen sisters of Charity of Leavenworth went to Creighton University in Omaha, Nebraska, and were the first sisters to go away for higher education.
Sisters of Charity of Nazareth	1911	The Sisters of Charity of Nazareth became a pontifical institute and made perpetual vows for the first time.
Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill	1912	The Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill established Resurrection School, Brookline, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania.
Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill	1912	The Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill established Providence Hospital School of Nursing, Beaver Falls, Pennsylvania.
Sisters of Charity of Halifax	1913	The Sisters of Charity of Halifax received final approbation of the congregation as a Pontifical Institute.
Sisters of Charity of Nazareth	1913	The Sisters of Charity of Nazareth established the first Catholic business college in diocese of Louisville.
Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill	1913	The Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill founded Sacred Heart High School, the first four-year parish high school staffed by the congregation.
Sisters of Charity of Leavenworth	1914	The Sisters of Charity of Leavenworth hired the first lay teacher to teach business courses at the Academy.
Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill	1914	The Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill opened Seton Junior College at Seton Hill.
Sisters of Charity of the Immaculate Conception	1914	In 1914 received the Decree of Praise and became known as the Sisters of Charity of the Immaculate Conception.
Sisters of Charity of Cincinnati	1915	The Sisters of Charity of Cincinnati began staffing the residential St. Rita School for the Deaf in Cincinnati.
Sisters of Charity of Leavenworth	1915	The Sisters of Charity of Leavenworth received the Decree of Praise and Commendation from Pope Benedict XV marking the official beginning as a Pontifical Institute. Final approval received in 1922 following the required seven-year waiting period.
Sisters of Charity of Leavenworth	1915	Mother Mary Berchmans and Sister Mary Aurelia Ferry made the first visit to Nazareth, Kentucky, since the departure of the sisters in 1851 for Nashville.
Sisters of Charity of Our Lady of Mercy	1915	Bishop England High School, the first Catholic high school in the Diocese, was established in Charleston, South Carolina, with three Sisters of Our Lady of Mercy and diocesan clergy as faculty. The Daughters of Charity also served on the faculty from 1951 until 1987.
Sisters of Charity of Saint Elizabeth	1915	Death on June 24 of Mother Mary Xavier Mehegan at the age of 90, a Sister of Charity for 68 years and Mother Superior of the Sisters of Charity of Saint Elizabeth for nearly 56 years.
Daughters of Charity, Western Province	1916	Sister Chrysostom Moynahan, D.C., became the first Licensed Nurse in the state of Alabama.
Daughters of Charity, Western Province	1917	Daughters of Charity from the Western Province established Saint Vincent's Day Nursery in Santa Barbara which was one of the first day care centers in California.
Sisters of Charity of Halifax	1917	First four Sisters of Charity of Halifax received doctoral degrees from The Catholic University of America, Washington, D.C.
Sisters of Charity of Saint Elizabeth	1917	Conferred by Fordham University of the degree Doctor of Laws, honoris causa, upon Sister Mary Pauline Kelligar, S.C., the first president of the College of Saint Elizabeth and the first woman to receive such a degree from Fordham.
Daughters of Charity, Western Province	1918	Sister Chrysostom Moynahan, D.C., led the first and only band of ten American Daughters of Charity from the Western Province to nurse the wounded in Europe during World War I.
Sisters of Charity of Leavenworth	1918	The Sisters of Charity of Leavenworth broke ground for the new Providence Hospital, Kansas City, Kansas.
Sisters of Charity of Nazareth	1918	Mary Josella Conlin, a Sister of Charity of Nazareth, was given charge of the eighty-five sisters who volunteered to nurse thousands of soldiers with influenza at Camp Taylor, Louisville, Kentucky.
Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill	1918	The State of Pennsylvania granted a charter establishing Seton Hill College as a four-year liberal arts college. The college became university in 2002.
Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill	1918	Civil Authorities recognized the Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill for "generous and heroic service" to victims of "Spanish Influenza epidemic."
Sisters of Charity of Leavenworth	1919	The first Sisters of Charity of Leavenworth earned graduate degrees.
Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill	1919	Seton Hill College conferred the first degrees: Bachelor of Music to two students.
Sisters of Charity of Cincinnati	1920	The Sisters of Charity of Cincinnati founded the College of Mount St. Joseph on-the-Ohio.
Sisters of Charity of Nazareth	1920	The Sisters of Charity of Nazareth opened the first Catholic college for women in the Diocese of Louisville, Kentucky.
Daughters of Charity, Western Province	1921	The Daughters of Charity from the Western Province established Marillac Social Center, Dallas, Texas.

Province/ Congregation	Year	Event
Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill	1921	The Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill conducted summer classes for Sisters of the Holy Family in New Orleans. This enabled the community of African American Sisters to receive their normal school certificates as they were unable to attend school in the South.
Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill	1922	The Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill joined five other religious communities to staff Altoona Catholic High School (later named Bishop Guilfoyle High School).
Sisters of Charity of Leavenworth	1923	St. Mary's Junior College was established in Leavenworth with five faculty and 21 students. The college expanded to offer baccalaureate degrees in 1930.
Daughters of Charity, Eastern Province	1924	The Daughters of Charity from Emmitsburg began the first mission in Asia when they established Saint Margaret's Hospital, Kanchow, Kiangsi Province, China.
Religieuses de Notre-Dame-du-Sacré-Coeur	1924	Les Religieuses de Notre-Dame-du-Sacré-Coeur was established as the first French religious congregation in the Maritime Provinces of Canada. Mere Marie-Anne (Suzanne Cyr) with fifty-two French Acadian Sisters who had entered the Sisters of Charity of the Immaculate Conception in Saint John, New Brunswick, separated from the Sisters of Charity to form the new congregation for ministry to French-speaking Acadians.
Sisters of Charity of Saint Elizabeth	1924	Departure of five Sisters of Charity of Saint Elizabeth for China, the congregation's first mission outside the United States.
Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill	1924	The Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill opened Saint John the Baptist High School in Lawrenceville, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania.
Sisters of Charity of the Immaculate Conception	1924	Fifty-three Acadian Sisters of Charity of the Immaculate Conception withdrew from the Sisters of Charity of the Immaculate Conception and formed a new congregation preserving their French language and Acadian culture. Five Acadian Missions were ceded to the new congregation, Les Religieuses de Notre-Dame-du-Sacré-Coeur.
Sisters of Charity of Halifax	1925	The Sisters of Charity of Halifax established Mount Saint Vincent College as the first and only degree-granting college for women in Canada and in the British Commonwealth. The institution was raised to the status of a University in 1966.
Sisters of Charity of Nazareth	1925	Sister Mary Adeline O'Leary was the first Sister of Charity of Nazareth to receive a doctorate when she graduated from Fordham University.
Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill	1925	The Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill founded the Parish Social Service Department, Sacred Heart Parish in East Liberty, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania.
Daughters of Charity, Eastern Province	1926	The Daughters of Charity from St. Vincent's Hospital, Jacksonville, hurried to Miami in mid-September, 1926, to assist victims of a hurricane which had left 38,000 homeless.
Sisters of Charity of Cincinnati	1926	The Sisters of Charity of Cincinnati became a Congregation of Pontifical Rite.
Sisters of Charity of Halifax	1927	The Sisters of Charity of Halifax established Immaculata Hospital, Westlock, Alberta, the first of six hospitals in Western Canada.
Sisters of Charity of Cincinnati	1928	The Sisters of Charity of Cincinnati opened the congregation's first mission in Wuchang, China.
Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill	1928	The Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill founded Saint Luke High School in Carnegie, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania.
Vincentian Sisters of Charity Bedford	1928	Five Vincentian Sisters of Charity of Pittsburgh arrived in Cleveland to minister to Slovak immigrants in that diocese with the intention of starting a new province of the institute under Joseph Schrems, bishop of Cleveland. Sister Mary John Berchmans Fialko was the first superior of the congregation at Bedford, Ohio. The Bedford congregation became autonomous from Pittsburgh in 1939 as an institute of diocesan right.
Sisters of Charity of Halifax	1929	Sister Mary Irenaus Cameron, S.C., was the first Sister of Charity of Halifax, to receive the Medal of Honor from the Republic of France for nursing French sailors in Hamilton Memorial Hospital, Nova Scotia, during World War I.
Sisters of Charity of Nazareth	1929	Nazareth College of the Sisters of Charity of Nazareth offered the first professional courses in Library Science in Kentucky. In 1950 Kentucky's first African American librarian received her degree from Nazareth College.
Sisters of Charity of Our Lady of Mercy	1929	The Sisters of Charity of Our Lady of Mercy provided sisters to staff the first Religious Vacation Schools established by Bishop Emmet Walsh throughout South Carolina.
Vincentian Sisters of Charity Bedford	1929	Official foundation date of the Vincentian Sisters of Charity of Bedford. The new Community would be supported and nurtured by the Pittsburgh foundation. Sister Mary John Berchmans Fialko was the first superior of the congregation at Bedford, Ohio. The Bedford congregation became autonomous from Pittsburgh in 1939 as an institute of diocesan right.
Sisters of Charity of Cincinnati	1930	The Sisters of Charity of Cincinnati welcomed members of the Pious Union of Our Lady of Good Counsel, a religious society for deaf and hard-of-hearing women, when the society was forced to dissolve.
Daughters of Charity, Eastern Province	1933	The first inter-congregational collaboration occurred between the Daughters of Charity and the Sisters of Charity of New York when the Emmitsburg Province lent two sisters for two years to assist in developing a nurses training school at Saint Mary's Hospital, Brooklyn, administered by the Sisters of Charity of New York.
Sisters of Charity of Leavenworth	1933	The Sisters of Charity of Leavenworth designed and adopted a Community Coat of Arms.

Province/ Congregation	Year	Event
Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill	1933	The Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill opened Saint Peter and Paul School in Tucson, Arizona, which was the congregation's first mission in the Southwestern United States.
Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill	1933	Sister Ireneaus Joyce, S.C., began a hospital pre-payment plan at Providence Hospital in Beaver Falls, Pennsylvania, which became a prototype for Blue Cross/Blue Shield of Western Pennsylvania.
Daughters of Charity, Western Province	1936	The Daughters of Charity of the Western Province opened the first special education school on the Pacific Coast at Saint Vincent's, Santa Barbara, California.
Sisters of Charity of Leavenworth	1936	Saint Mary College approved by North Central Association as a four-year liberal arts college for women.
Sisters of Charity of Our Lady of Mercy	1937	The Sisters of Charity of Our Lady of Mercy opened Divine Saviour Hospital in York, the first Catholic health care facility in York, a rural and largely non-Catholic area of South Carolina.
Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill	1939	Began ministry to African American Community in Manchester in Pittsburgh's North Side.
Vincetian Sisters of Charity Bedford	1939	The Vincetian Sisters of Charity of Bedford were established as an autonomous diocesan community.
Sisters of Charity of Leavenworth	1940	Sisters of Charity of Leavenworth dedicated their new Mother House.
Sisters of Charity of Cincinnati	1941	Sister Eugene Marie Carpe, Sister of Charity of Cincinnati, worked with doctors in doing the first exchange transfusion in a "blue baby" in Cincinnati.
Sisters of Charity of Nazareth	1941	The Sisters of Charity of Nazareth opened the first clinic/hospital for African Americans in Ensley, Alabama.
Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill	1941	Established Elizabeth Seton High School for girls in the former West Liberty School in Brookline, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania.
Sisters of Charity of Leavenworth	1942	Sisters of Charity of Leavenworth opened St. John's Hospital in Santa Monica, California.
Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill	1942	The Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill instituted scholarship program at Seton Hill college as a gift to the Sisters of the Holy Family on the occasion of their centenary celebration.
Religieuses de Notre-Dame-du-Sacré-Coeur	1943	The Religieuses de Notre-Dame-du-Sacré-Coeur offered Acadian girls the opportunity to continue their classical studies after high school graduation. Ten girls continued on to graduate with a Bachelor of Arts degree.
Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill	1944	The Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill opened two new missions in the Southwest: St. Mary School, Chandler and a catechetical and social service center at Immaculate Conception Mission in Ajo, Arizona.
Sisters of Charity of Cincinnati	1945	The Sisters of Charity of Cincinnati opened El Pomar Retreat House in Colorado Springs, the first Catholic retreat house west of the Mississippi.
Sisters of Charity of Saint Elizabeth	1945	Decree of Bishop Thomas H. McLaughlin of Paterson, New Jersey, opened the Informative Process concerning the life and virtues of Sister Miriam Teresa Demjanovich, a Sister of Charity of Saint Elizabeth, who died in 1927.
Sisters of Charity of Halifax	1946	The first school was named after a Sister of Charity of Halifax, Sister Pius Memorial School, Melville Cove, Halifax.
Sisters of Charity of Leavenworth	1946	The Sisters of Charity of Leavenworth staffed Mount St. Joseph, new diocesan home for the aged in Kansas City, Kansas.
Sisters of Charity of Our Lady of Mercy	1946	The Sisters of Charity of Our Lady of Mercy established a catechetical center in Hightstown, New Jersey, their first northern mission.
Sisters of Charity Federation	1947	The first meeting of the Conference of Mother Seton's Daughters, which was founded to work together for cause of canonization of Elizabeth Bayley Seton. The Seton cause remained the primary focus until 1975. The charter members of the Conference included: Daughters of Charity of the United States (Emmitsburg and Saint Louis Provinces); Sisters of Charity of Saint Vincent de Paul of New York; Sisters of Charity of Cincinnati; Sisters of Charity of Saint Elizabeth (Convent Station); Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill (Greensburg); and the Sisters of Charity of Saint Vincent de Paul of Halifax. Later membership expanded and the name Sisters of Charity Federation was adopted.
Sisters of Charity of Nazareth	1947	The Sisters of Charity of Nazareth opened a mission in Mokama, India, their first mission outside the United States.
Daughters of Charity, Western Province	1948	The first quadruplets born in Detroit (three girls and a boy) were delivered at Providence Hospital, administered by the Daughters of Charity.
Sisters of Charity of Saint Elizabeth	1948	Opening at Convent Station, New Jersey, of the first General Chapter of the Sisters of Charity of Saint Elizabeth, a new government structure introduced by the revised Constitution approved by all the Bishops in whose dioceses the congregation served.
Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill	1948	The Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill became a Pontifical Congregation. Constitutions receive approval for a period of seven years, authorizing change to perpetual vows.
Vincetian Sisters of Charity Bedford	1948	The Vincetian Sisters of Charity of Bedford opened a Novitiate for young women of all nationalities.
Religieuses de Notre-Dame-du-Sacré-Coeur	1949	Religieuses de Notre-Dame-du-Sacré-Coeur established Collège Notre-Dame d'Acadie, the first college for girls in the Maritime Provinces, which began in Moncton, New Brunswick, offering a possibility of a degree in arts, sciences, home economics and music.

Province/ Congregation	Year	Event
Sisters of Charity of Nazareth	1949	Nazareth College, Louisville became the first college in Kentucky to establish a baccalaureate program in Nursing. Nazareth College became Spalding College in 1963.
Sisters of Charity of Our Lady of Mercy	1949	The Community at Charleston, South Carolina, adopted a new Constitution and a new name: The Sisters of CHARITY of Our Lady of Mercy.
Sisters of Charity of Saint Elizabeth	1949	Public perpetual profession at Saint Anne Villa of Mother Mary Benita Kane, S.C., and the first Sister of Charity of Saint Elizabeth to make public perpetual profession.
Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill	1949	Mother Maria Benedict Monahan, S.C., pronounced perpetual vows and receives vows of the Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill.
Sisters of Charity of Leavenworth	1950	Inauguration of the graduate division at Saint Mary College.
Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill	1950	The Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill began ministry at Salpointe High School in Tucson, Arizona.
Religieuses de Notre-Dame-du-Sacré-Coeur	1951	Religieuses de Notre-Dame-du-Sacré-Coeur began the congregation's first mission to open in Nova Scotia in Weymouth, Nova Scotia, birthplace of the first Acadian bishop.
Sisters of Charity of Cincinnati	1951	The Sisters of Charity of Cincinnati sent sisters to staff Villa Nazareth Orphanage in Rome, a home for gifted, poor Italian boys.
Daughters of Charity, Eastern Province	1952	The Daughters of Charity from Emmitsburg began their first mission in South America at Colegio Madre Seton, Trinidad, El Beni, Bolivia.
Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill	1953	The Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill built and dedicated Assumption Hall, a home for our retired sisters.
Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill	1953	The Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill opened St. Jane de Chantal School, Bethesda, Maryland.
Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill	1953	The Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill established postulancy in the southwest at Casa Elizabeth Seton.
Sisters of Charity of Our Lady of Mercy	1954	The Sisters of Charity of Our Lady of Mercy provided sisters for St. Michael's School, Gibbstown, New Jersey, their first parish school in the North.
Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill	1954	The Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill founded St. Pancratius School in Lakewood, California.
Sisters of Charity of Saint Elizabeth	1955	Official Opening of the Apostolic Process for the Beatification and Canonization of Sister Miriam Teresa Demjanovich, S.C., by Very Reverend Antonio Leghisa, C.M.F., so authorized by the Sacred Congregation of Rites.
Daughters of Charity, Western Province	1956	The Daughters of Charity established the Guardian Angel Settlement House, St. Louis, Missouri, where the Daughters still minister.
Sisters of Charity of Halifax	1956	Sister Catherine Gerard Herlihy was the first Sister of Charity of Halifax to become a Fellow of the American College of Hospital Administrators and later named to the first Board of Regents.
Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill	1956	The Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill opened Our Lady of Lourdes School in Abbeyville, Louisiana.
Sisters of Charity of Nazareth	1957	The Sisters of Charity of Nazareth opened a novitiate in India.
Sisters of Charity of Saint Elizabeth	1957	Conferred by Pope Pius XII, July 30, of the Decree of Praise constituting the Sisters of Charity of Saint Elizabeth as a pontifical institute.
Sisters of Charity of Leavenworth	1958	The Sisters of Charity of Leavenworth held their first vocation workshop at the Mother House.
Sisters of Charity of New York	1958	The Sisters of Charity of New York opened the Convent of Mary the Queen in Yonkers, New York, as the congregation's first retirement home.
Daughters of Charity, Western Province	1958	First Rotational Cobalt-50 treatment machine in Indiana for human beings at St. Mary's Hospital on Washington Avenue in Evansville, Indiana.
Daughters of Charity, Western Province	1959	Saint Mary's Hospital, Milwaukee, Wisconsin, opens a new burn therapy center which is the first of its kind in the Midwest and only the fourth in the entire United States. Saint Mary's Hospital is part of Ascension Health.
Religieuses de Notre-Dame-du-Sacré-Coeur	1959	The Religieuses de Notre-Dame-du-Sacré-Coeur established the congregation's first mission on Prince Edward Island in the French Acadian area of the province.
Sisters of Charity of New York	1959	The Sisters of Charity of New York began Elizabeth Seton College, the first Catholic two year college in New York State, in Yonkers, New York.
Sisters of Charity of Saint Elizabeth	1959	Blessing of the chapel and formal opening on June 20 of Maris Stella, the newly purchased summer home for the Sisters of Charity of Saint Elizabeth, in Harvey Cedars, New Jersey.
Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill	1959	The Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill joined three other Congregations to establish Greensburg Central High School, Greensburg, Pennsylvania.
Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill	1959	Accepted ownership and operation of Jeannette District Memorial Hospital as an acute care, community Hospital. Sister Geraldine Miller was appointed Administrator.
Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill	1960	Sister Thomas Aquinas (Mary Agnes) Carey, Mary Noreen Lacey, Marie Timothy (Alice) Ruane, and Martin de Porres Knock sail to Korea to open the first foreign mission of the Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill.
Sisters of Charity of Cincinnati	1961	The Sisters of Charity of Cincinnati began missions in Huancane and Lima, Peru.
Sisters of Charity of Our Lady of Mercy	1961	Divine Saviour Hospital Nursing Home was established in York, SC, the first and only Catholic nursing home in South Carolina.

Province/ Congregation	Year	Event
Sisters of Charity of New York	1962	The Sister of Charity of New York, Sister Loretto Bernard (later Mother Loretto Bernard) is awarded the American Hospital Association award for "Meritorious Achievement" in her role as Administrator of Saint Vincent's Hospital, New York.
Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill	1962	The Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill opened Saint Joseph Middle School for Girls and St. Joseph High School for Girls, Kang-tjin, South Korea.
Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill	1962	Joined Staff of Bishop Carroll High School in Ebensburg, Pennsylvania, along with other Religious Communities.
Sisters of Charity of Leavenworth	1963	The Sisters of Charity of Leavenworth arrived in Talara, Peru.
Sisters of Charity of Our Lady of Mercy	1963	The Sisters of Charity of Our Lady of Mercy established Our Lady of Mercy Juniorate in St. Louis, Missouri, where sisters attended Marillac College and St. Louis University. Marillac College was operated by the Daughters of Charity of the Western Province.
Sisters of Charity of Halifax	1964	The Sisters of Charity of Halifax participated in their first international concert, "The Singing Sisters" performed at the World's Fair at the New York State Pavilion of the World's Fair.
Sisters of Charity of Leavenworth	1964	The Sisters of Charity of Leavenworth sent the first group to the foreign missions.
Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill	1964	Sister Francis Assisi Gorham, a Sister of Charity of Seton Hill, began the Ozanam Strings as a way to bring music to underprivileged children in the Hill District of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania.
Daughters of Charity, Western Province	1965	Saint Margaret's Hospital, Montgomery, Alabama, was the first previously all-white hospital in Montgomery to grant privileges to African American doctors. Sister Catherine Fink, D.C., Saint Margaret's administrator, broke the color barrier when she announced that African American doctors would practice at Saint Margaret's Hospital.
Sisters of Charity Federation	1965	During the post-Vatican II renewal Federation members explored charism, formation, and mission projects related to shared heritage.
Sisters of Charity Federation	1965	The Conference of Mother Seton's Daughters became the Federation of the Daughters of Blessed Elizabeth Ann Seton in response to Vatican II's invitation of communities sharing same charism to form federations (after 1975, Federation of the Daughters of Saint Elizabeth Ann Seton, then the Sisters of Charity Federation).
Sisters of Charity of Halifax	1965	Sister Francis d'Assisi was the first Sister of Charity of Halifax to be awarded the Pro Ecclesia et Pontifice Medal.
Sisters of Charity of New York	1965	The Sisters of Charity of New York participated in their first public demonstration for Civil Rights, by marching in Harlem, New York.
Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill	1965	The first postulants for the Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill entered in Korea and traveled to the United States for Novitiate at Seton Hill.
Daughters of Charity, Western Province	1966	Saint Vincent's Hospital, Indianapolis, established a Coronary Care Unit, and became the first in Indiana to do so.
Religieuses de Notre-Dame-du-Sacr�-Coeur	1966	The Religieuses de Notre-Dame-du-Sacr�-Coeur built and operated the first French Catholic hospital in Kent County, New Brunswick.
Sisters of Charity Federation	1966	The mistresses of initial formation were the first group invited to convene through the Sisters of Charity Federation. This gathering developed into the Company of Charity Formation Personnel (CCFP).
Sisters of Charity of Leavenworth	1966	The Sisters of Charity of Leavenworth arrived in Bolivia.
Religieuses de Notre-Dame-du-Sacr�-Coeur	1967	The Religieuses de Notre-Dame-du-Sacr�-Coeur began two foreign missions, one in Peru and another in Columbia, South America.
Sisters of Charity Federation	1967	Annual conferences began among colleges sponsored by congregational members of the Sisters of Charity Federation.
Sisters of Charity of Leavenworth	1967	The Sisters of Charity of Leavenworth arrived at Guatemalan mission collaborating with the diocese of Helena, Montana.
Sisters of Charity of Saint Elizabeth	1967	Changes in congregational structure resulted in the establishment of three provinces and appointment of the first provincial superiors, effective July 1.
Sisters of Charity of the Immaculate Conception	1967	The Sisters of Charity of the Immaculate Conception established the congregation's first foreign mission in Peru.
Sisters of Charity of Halifax	1968	The Sisters of Charity of Halifax opened the congregation's first mission in Latin America in Chiclayo, Peru, in conjunction with the Archdiocese of Halifax.
Sisters of Charity of Nazareth	1968	Spalding College of the Sisters of Charity of Nazareth became a charter member of Kentuckiana Metroversity, a consortium enabling students of colleges in the vicinity of Louisville in Kentucky and Indiana to get credit for courses taken at all participating colleges.
Sisters of Charity Federation	1969	Over time the lived experience of the Sisters of Charity Federation became normative. Members approved the first revisions (1969 and 1972) of the by-laws which limited the term of the Chair to one year with her principal duty to prepare and preside at the annual meeting and appoint a secretary from her community.
Sisters of Charity Federation	1969	Members began assisting the Mother Seton Guild with public relations and promotion of the Seton cause and served as docents at the Seton Shrine in Emmitsburg.
Sisters of Charity Federation	1969	Federation members desired to forge links with other groups in the Vincentian Family and appointed Sister Mathilde Comstock, D.C., and later Sister Rosemary Fleming, a Sister of Charity of Seton Hill, as the official representatives of the group to serve on the national board of the Ladies of Charity of the United States.

Province/ Congregation	Year	Event
Daughters of Charity, Province of the United States	1969	The Daughters of Charity Eastern Province (Emmitsburg) and Western Province (Normandy) were reconfigured resulting in five new provinces: Albany (Northeast), Emmitsburg (Southeast), Evansville (East Central), Los Altos Hills (West), and St. Louis (West Central).
Religieuses de Notre-Dame-du-Sacré-Coeur	1970	The Religieuses de Notre-Dame-du-Sacré-Coeur began their work with native people on the reserve of Elsipogtog, Kent County, New Brunswick. (This reserve was formerly called Big Cove.)
Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill	1970	The Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill founded Elizabeth Seton Montessori School.
Sisters of Charity of Leavenworth	1971	The Sisters of Charity of Leavenworth staffed a mission in Chalaco, Peru.
Sisters of Charity of Leavenworth	1971	The Sisters of Charity of Leavenworth Remnants , a music combo, appeared on "Here's Lucy Show".
Sisters of Charity of New York	1971	The Sisters of Charity of New York opened their first mission in Central America when Sisters departed for Guatemala to serve the Mayan Indians.
Religieuses de Notre-Dame-du-Sacré-Coeur	1972	The Religieuses de Notre-Dame-du-Sacré-Coeur opened its first and only mission in Haiti.
Sisters of Charity of Halifax	1972	The Sisters of Charity of Halifax launched Seton Centre Community Project to address the needs of the poor, youth, and elderly in Cape Breton, Nova Scotia.
Sisters of Charity of Halifax	1972	Sister Catherine Wallace was the first Sister of Charity of Halifax to receive the Medal of Service of the Order of Canada for her outstanding work in education.
Sisters of Charity of Halifax	1972	Sister Nuala Kenny was the first Sister of Charity of Halifax to receive her medical degree and to specialize in Pediatric medicine, and later became Chief of Pediatrics at the Children's Hospital in Halifax.
Sisters of Charity of Nazareth	1972	The Sisters of Charity of Nazareth established an Associate Program. The first lay director of program appointed 2006.
Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill	1972	The Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill at DePaul Institute began supportive program for handicapped children of Chimbote, Peru.
Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill	1972	The Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill facilitated the consolidation of Pittsburgh Hospital with Columbia Hospital to form Forbes Health System.
Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill	1972	A Novitiate of the Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill was canonically established in Korea.
Sisters of Charity Federation	1973	Members added a preamble to the by-laws and a proposed revision for a new category of membership. This provided for the admission of congregations with Vincentian but not Setonian roots.
Sisters of Charity Federation	1973	Federation members committed themselves to seek effective strategies for human development, to promote investment in minority enterprises, and to make corporate responses to social justice issues.
Daughters of Charity, Albany Province	1974	Sister Serena Branson, D.C., named first woman executive director of Albany Catholic Charities, the first woman to hold such a position in the United States.
Sisters of Charity Federation	1974	During the annual meetings of the Sisters of Charity Federation, members considered strategies to make their shared charism more effective in the modern world, especially in the areas of social justice, spirituality, and renewal programs.
Sisters of Charity of New York	1974	The Sisters of Charity of New York became co-founders of the Inter-Community Center for Justice And Peace, which is located in Manhattan.
Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill	1974	The Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill established Elizabeth Seton Care Fund.
Sisters of Charity Federation	1975	Sister Hildegarde Marie Mahoney, major superior of the Sisters of Charity of Saint Elizabeth, was Chair of the Federation in 1975 when the Sisters of Charity Federation successfully accomplished the founding purpose, the canonization of St. Elizabeth Ann Seton, September 14. She participated in the ceremonies as the first woman lector in a Papal Mass.
Sisters of Charity of Cincinnati	1975	The Sisters of Charity of Cincinnati started the congregation's Associates in Mission program.
Sisters of Charity of Nazareth	1975	The Sisters of Charity of Nazareth opened their first mission in Belize, Central America.
Sisters of Charity of Nazareth	1975	Lucy Marie Freibert, a Sister of Charity of Nazareth and Professor of Women's and Gender Studies, taught the first Women's Studies course at the University of Louisville, Kentucky.
Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill	1975	Sister Gemma DelDuca, a Sister of Charity of Seton Hill, began ministry in Israel.
Sisters of Charity Federation	1976	After revising the statutes and by-laws, the Sisters of Charity Federation adopted a new purpose: "to bring together in love and friendship the various congregations that are inspired by the charism of their common foundress, Saint Elizabeth Ann Seton; and thus be enabled to discover more fully the life and mission of a Sister of Charity today."
Sisters of Charity of New York	1976	The Sisters of Charity of New York began their Lay Associate Program.
Sisters of Charity of Saint Elizabeth	1976	Election of Sister Lucille Anne Egan, a Sister of Charity of Saint Elizabeth, as Delegate-at-Large to the National Democratic Committee, one of four Sisters ever so elected.
Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill	1976	Korea became a Region of the Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill.
Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill	1976	Elizabeth Seton High School graduated its last class. Elizabeth Seton High School and South Hills Catholic merge to form Seton-LaSalle High School.

Province/ Congregation	Year	Event
Daughters of Charity, Evansville Province	1977	Saint Mary's Hospital, Evansville, Indiana, established the Alcohol Treatment Program, the first in Indiana to be certified by the Department of Mental Health, Division of Addiction Services.
Sisters of Charity Federation	1977	Members explored the feasibility of common study of the charism which led them to adopt a resolution to encourage each community in the Federation to engage in ongoing study, reflection, and sharing of the lives of Vincent de Paul, Louise de Marillac, and Elizabeth Bayley Seton. One result was the initiation (1988) of Charity: A Shared Vision, an ongoing formation program. A later outcome was the first of several scholarly symposia to explore the historical and theological relevance of The Seton Legacy (1992).
Sisters of Charity Federation	1977	Members launched drives to seek approval for a Seton stamp from the Citizens Stamp Advisory Committee of the United States Postal Service.
Sisters of Charity of Halifax	1977	Sister Katherine O'Toole was the first Sister of Charity of Halifax to be appointed to the General Council of the Sacred Congregation for Religious and Secular Institutes.
Sisters of Charity of Nazareth	1978	The Sisters of Charity of Nazareth opened their first mission in Nepal.
Sisters of Charity Federation	1979	The Sisters of Charity of the Immaculate Conception of Saint John, New Brunswick, Canada was the first additional community to seek admission as an associate member.
Sisters of Charity of Cincinnati	1979	The Sisters of Charity of Cincinnati established the Sisters of Charity Health Care Systems (SCHCS) under the leadership of Sister Grace Marie Hiltz, S.C.
Sisters of Charity of Leavenworth	1979	The Sisters of Charity of Leavenworth opened their first mission opened in Piura, Peru.
Sisters of Charity of Nazareth	1979	Michael Leo Mullaney, a Sister of Charity of Nazareth, was the first woman to serve on the board of Federal Reserve Bank of Cleveland, Ohio.
Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill	1979	The Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill staffed the congregation's first parish Korea at Mopko, South Korea.
Daughters of Charity, Emmitsburg Province	1980	Sister Irene Kraus, D.C., became the first woman and first religious woman to chair the American Hospital Association.
Sisters of Charity of Leavenworth	1980	The Sisters of Charity of Leavenworth opened a formation program in Peru; first Peruvian young woman entered the South American novitiate.
Sisters of Charity of Nazareth	1981	Mary Catherine Baseheart, a Sister of Charity of Nazareth, received the first Grawenmeyer Award for excellence as a professor at the Metroversity of Louisville, Kentucky.
Sisters of Charity of New York	1981	The Sisters of Charity of New York became a founding member of the Leviticus 25:23 Alternative Fund, a community development loan fund whose purpose is to extend low interest loans to non-profit organizations that aid the poor.
Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill	1981	The Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill staffed Saint Thomas More Manor, Christian Housing sponsored high-rise for the elderly in Bethel Park, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania.
Sisters of Charity Federation	1982	The by-laws of the Sisters of Charity Federation were amended to allow for two categories of membership: Full Membership for those with common origin in the Emmitsburg foundation and Associate Membership for those that derive their spirit and inspiration from Saint Elizabeth Ann Seton. These were later modified (1985, 1988) to allow equality of status among members and to admit congregations within the Tradition of Charity which do not have a direct connection to Elizabeth Seton but are rooted in the Vincentian tradition.
Sisters of Charity of Halifax	1983	Sister Frances Elizabeth Yates was the first Sister of Charity of Halifax to have a street named after her: Yates Crescent, Faro, Yukon Territory.
Sisters of Charity of Our Lady of Mercy	1983	The Sisters of Charity of Our Lady of Mercy participated in Internovitiate Programs for the first time. Sisters lived with the Sisters of Charity of Nazareth and attended classes at the motherhouse of the Sisters of Charity of Cincinnati at Mt. St. Joseph, Cincinnati, Ohio.
Religieuses de Notre-Dame-du-Sacré-Coeur	1984	During the first visit to Canada of Pope John Paul II, Sister Odette Léger, superior general of the Religieuses de Notre-Dame-du-Sacré-Coeur, represented the religious women of New Brunswick and spoke of the recognition of women's work in the Church.
Sisters of Charity Federation	1984	The Sisters of Charity Federation designated the archives of the Daughters of Charity at Saint Joseph's Provincial House, Emmitsburg, Maryland, as the repository for its official papers and artifacts.
Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill	1984	The Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill built and opened Eun-Hae School for Handicapped Children in Kwang-ju, South Korea.
Daughters of Charity, Evansville Province	1985	Saint Thomas Hospital, Nashville, Tennessee, became the 26 th hospital in the US to offer a heart transplant program and the first in Tennessee when a team of cardiac surgeons performed a heart transplant.
Sisters of Charity of Cincinnati	1985	The Sisters of Charity of Cincinnati founded Eldermount adult day program, one of the first in Ohio.
Sisters of Charity of Leavenworth	1985	The first Peruvian Sisters of Charity of Leavenworth professed First vows.
Daughters of Charity, Emmitsburg Province	1986	Sister Irene Kraus, D.C., became the first president and first CEO of the Daughters of Charity National Health System, based in St. Louis, Missouri.

Province/ Congregation	Year	Event
Daughters of Charity, Evansville Province	1986	Saint Mary's Hospital, Milwaukee, Wisconsin, became the first hospital in the world to fly experiments aboard the NASA shuttle. Project JULIE, Joint Utilization of Laser Integrated Experiments, was named after Saint Mary's Hospital's administrator, Sister Julie Hanser, D.C.
Religieuses de Notre-Dame-du-Sacré-Coeur	1986	Les Religieuses de Notre-Dame-du-Sacré-Coeur are accepted as members to the Sisters of Charity Federation, the first and still the only French-speaking Congregation in the Federation.
Sisters of Charity Federation	1986	Les Religieuses de Notre Dame du Sacré-Coeur of Moncton, New Brunswick, Canada, was the second community to seek admission as an associate member.
Sisters of Charity of Leavenworth	1986	The Sisters of Charity of Leavenworth opened Saint Vincent Clinic, a new mission to aid the uninsured and underinsured in Leavenworth, Kansas.
Sisters of Charity of Nazareth	1986	The Sisters of Charity of Nazareth, Marilyn Spink and Gwen McMahon secured a waiver of the federal and state communicable disease regulations to allow the Sisters of Charity's Nazareth Nursing Home, to admit patients with AIDS. Nazareth Home accepted these patients ten years before any other nursing home.
Sisters of Charity of Saint Elizabeth	1986	Canonical appointment of Sister Thomas Mary Salerno, a Sister of Charity of Saint Elizabeth, as Chancellor of the Archdiocese of Newark, New Jersey, and the first woman to hold such a position in this Archdiocese.
Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill	1986	The Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill inaugurated an annual volunteer ministry to teach English in Korea.
Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill	1987	The Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill began the National Catholic Center for Holocaust Education at Seton Hill College.
Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill	1987	The Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill in Korea staffed Saint Mary School for the Blind and Sacred Heart Residence for the Blind, Chongju, Korea.
Sisters of Charity Federation	1988	The Sisters of Charity Federation sponsored the first conference of Charity: A Shared Vision .
Sisters of Charity Federation	1988	Representatives of congregations belonging to the Sisters of Charity Federation gathered informally as Charity Connections to share reflections and to write occasional essays on the charism, later published in booklet format, Living the Charity Charism . This is now an ongoing project.
Sisters of Charity of Leavenworth	1988	The Sisters of Charity of Leavenworth began an Associate Program. The Sisters of Charity of Leavenworth opened Marian Clinic, Topeka, Kansas, and Marillac Clinic, Grand Junction, Colorado.
Sisters of Charity Federation	1989	The Vincentian Sisters of Charity of Pittsburgh were admitted to the Sisters of Charity Federation.
Sisters of Charity Federation	1989	An annual gathering of formators evolved (1989) into the Company of Charity Formation Personnel (CCFP), which affiliated (1992) with the Federation as a formal sub-group.
Sisters of Charity of Our Lady of Mercy	1989	The Sisters of Charity of Our Lady of Mercy established Our Lady of Mercy Community Outreach Services to provide direct service to the poor on James, John and Wadmalaw Islands, South Carolina, and transferred sponsorship of our health care facilities to Bon Secours Health Care System.
Sisters of Charity of Our Lady of Mercy	1989	The Sisters of Charity of Our Lady of Mercy survived Hurricane Hugo, a category 4 hurricane in the Charleston, South Carolina.
Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill	1989	Sacred Heart High School, East Liberty graduated the last class. Oakland Catholic High School began as a merger between Sacred Heart High School and Cathedral High School in Pittsburgh.
Sisters of Charity Federation	1990	Vincentian Sisters of Charity of Bedford were admitted to the Sisters of Charity Federation.
Sisters of Charity Federation	1990	The Sisters of Charity of New York and the Sisters of Charity of Saint Elizabeth established a joint novitiate which became (1992) a collaborative novitiate with the additional involvement of the Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill, the New York and Boston Provinces of the Sisters of Charity of Halifax, and later other Federation members.
Sisters of Charity of Saint Elizabeth	1990	Inauguration of the program Seton Affiliates, later called Seton Associates, to expand ministry opportunities for the laity.
Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill	1990	Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill arrived from Korea to staff the Korean Catholic Center in Chicago, Illinois.
Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill	1990	The Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill dedicated a Peace Site on Doran Hall lawn and establishment of all local houses as "peace sites".
Sisters of Charity Federation	1991	The Sisters of Charity Federation initiated its first publication project by commissioning Sister Hildegard Marie Mahoney, a Sister of Charity of Saint Elizabeth, to prepare a manuscript for publication on the history of the Federation.
Sisters of Charity Federation	1991	The Sisters of Charity Federation continued updating and refining its structure and restated its purpose as follows: To bring together in love and friendship among congregations that trace their roots to Emmitsburg; have a Seton connection and share her spirit; or share the spirit of Vincent de Paul and Louise de Marillac through adaptation of the Common Rules of the Daughters of Charity.
Sisters of Charity Federation	1991	The Sisters of Charity of Nazareth were admitted as a member of the Sisters of Charity Federation.

Province/ Congregation	Year	Event
Sisters of Charity of Halifax	1991	The Sisters of Charity of Halifax received the First Associate members into the congregation.
Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill	1991	Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill, Marlene Mondalek and Shi-ja Lee, visited China to explore possibilities for future apostolic work in that country.
Sisters of Charity Federation	1992	The Sisters of Charity Federation sponsored the first of several scholarly symposia to explore the historical and theological relevance of The Seton Legacy . Seton Legacy II was held in 1996-1997 and Seton Legacy III in 2001. The Vincentian Studies Institute collaborated with the Federation and published the proceedings of the first two symposia in Vincentian Heritage .
Sisters of Charity of Leavenworth	1992	The first Peruvian Sisters of Charity of Leavenworth visited the United States and were observers at Community Chapter.
Sisters of Charity of Our Lady of Mercy	1992	Sister Bridget Sullivan, General Superior and Executive Secretary for the Synod of Charleston and Diocesan Pastoral Council, received the Papal Honor the "Pro Ecclesia et Pontifice" medal, the first time a Sister of Charity of Our Lady of Mercy received this honor.
Sisters of Charity of Leavenworth	1993	The Sisters of Charity of Leavenworth published the first newsletter, SCLA Connection , published for the Sisters of Charity of Leavenworth Associates.
Sisters of Charity of New York	1993	The Sisters of Charity of New York established Seton House, New York City, the first permanent housing for homeless people in New York City.
Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill	1993	The Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill established Seton Interreligious Research Center in Seoul, Korea.
Sisters of Charity Federation	1994	The Sisters of Charity of Our Lady of Mercy of Charleston were admitted as a member of the Sisters of Charity Federation.
Sisters of Charity of Our Lady of Mercy	1994	The Sisters of Charity of Our Lady of Mercy joined the Sisters of Charity Federation.
Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill	1994	Rome approved revisions to the Constitutions providing for the establishment of provinces.
Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill	1994	The Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill initiated Prison Ministry Network.
Sisters of Charity Federation	1995	The Sisters of Charity of Leavenworth were admitted as a member to the Sisters of Charity Federation.
Sisters of Charity Federation	1995	The Sisters of Charity Federation was legally incorporated in the state of New York as The Elizabeth Seton Federation.
Sisters of Charity of Leavenworth	1995	The Sisters of Charity of Leavenworth sent two sisters to Quito, Ecuador, to open a new mission.
Daughters of Charity, Evansville Province	1996	An Indiana Heart Institute Cardiothoracic Surgeon performed Indiana's first videoscopic saphenous vein removal at Saint Vincent's Hospital, Indianapolis, Indiana.
Daughters of Charity, Los Altos Hills Province	1996	The five provinces of the Daughters of Charity established their first interprovincial mission, located in Gallup, New Mexico, to minister among Native Americans.
Sisters of Charity Federation	1996	The Federation adopted the following purposes and a new name, the Sisters of Charity Federation in the Vincentian and Setonian Tradition: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> o To support the commitment of its members to the mission of Charity expressed through the diversity of their specific congregational charisms. o To foster ongoing study and reflection on the Tradition of Charity. o To facilitate collaboration in projects related to ministry and other areas of common concern. o To foster ongoing study and reflection on the charism and Tradition of Charity in its seventeenth-century origin and in its flowering in many congregations founded in North America.
Sisters of Charity Federation	1996	In order to make the writings of Saint Elizabeth Ann Seton more available, the Sisters of Charity Federation appointed Sister Regina Bechtle, S.C. (New York), and Sister Judith Metz, S.C. (Cincinnati), as co-editors for the three volume publication Elizabeth Bayley Seton Collected Writings (New City Press, 2000-2005), for which the Seton scholar Ellin M. Kelly, Ph. D., was designated manuscript editor. The Vincentian Studies Institute published annotated listings, by repository, of the writings of Elizabeth Bayley Seton in Vincentian Heritage .
Sisters of Charity Federation	1996	The Sisters of Charity Federation in the Vincentian and Setonian Tradition adopted a new name and clarified that congregations must meet one of two key criteria for membership: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1) Trace their characteristic spirit and charism to the Tradition of Charity of Vincent de Paul, Louise de Marillac, and Elizabeth Ann Seton; 2) Trace the influence of the Vincentian Rule (Common Rules of the Daughters of Charity) in their documents and in their lifestyle.
Sisters of Charity of Cincinnati	1996	The Sisters of Charity Health Care Systems was a founding member of Catholic Health Initiatives (CHI).
Sisters of Charity of Leavenworth	1996	The Sisters of Charity of Leavenworth sponsored Converging Paths Days , which was the first time that Sisters of Charity Leavenworth and Hermanas de la Caridad were together as Community.
Sisters of Charity of New York	1996	Establishment of Elizabeth Seton Women's Center to respond to the needs of women of diverse faiths, cultures, and economic means.
Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill	1996	Sister Mary Louise Lisowski, a Sister of Charity of Seton Hill, began the Gabriel Project in West Virginia to provide quality services to pregnant women in need.

Province/ Congregation	Year	Event
Religieuses de Notre-Dame-du-Sacré-Coeur	1997	A member of the Religieuses de Notre-Dame-du-Sacré-Coeur, Sister Marie-Hélène Allain, was the first religious woman to win the gold medal at the 3 rd games of "Le Sommet de la Francophonie" held in Madagascar.
Sisters of Charity Federation	1997	Sister Geraldine Anthony, S.C. (Halifax), completed A Vision of Service (Sheed & Ward, 1997), which was published during the fiftieth anniversary of the Sisters of Charity Federation.
Sisters of Charity Federation	1997	In order to be more effective advocates on peace and justice issues, the Sisters of Charity Federation gained recognition as a Non-Governmental Organization (NGO) at the United Nations. Sister Maria Elena Dio, S.C. (Halifax), was the first representative of the Federation to the Department of Public Information at the United Nations.
Sisters of Charity of Nazareth	1997	Mother Catherine Spalding of the Sisters of Charity of Nazareth was inducted into the Kentucky Women Remembered hall of portraits in the Capitol in Frankfort. She and Michael Leo Mullaney, also a Sister of Charity of Nazareth, inducted in 2006, are the only two members of religious communities given this recognition. Honorees are recognized for significant contributions to Kentucky and the nation.
Sisters of Charity of Nazareth	1997	Eileen Egan, a Sister of Charity of Nazareth, president of Spalding University, was the first woman to chair the board of directors of the Federal Reserve Bank of St. Louis. She was appointed first head of the advisory committee for the Jefferson County Office for Women and also was chosen by mayor as first head of Louisville Ethics Committee.
Sisters of Charity of New York	1997	The Sisters of Charity of New York established Sisters Hill Farm, a community supported agricultural project in Stanfordsville, New York.
Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill	1997	Two Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill from the Korean Province began ministry in mainland China. Sisters established a center for mentally handicapped and autistic children in Yanji, a Northern Chinese City of almost 400,000 residents.
Sisters of Charity Federation	1998	Sister Theresa Capria, S.C. (New York), represented the Sisters of Charity Federation at the 1998 General Assembly of the Congregation of the Mission in Rome. Sister Mary Ann Daly filled that role in 2004.
Sisters of Charity of Leavenworth	1998	The Sisters of Charity of Leavenworth immersion experience led to a relationship with initiatives in Haiti.
Sisters of Charity of New York	1998	The Sisters of Charity Multi-Service Center opened in Yonkers. Known as Casa de Esperanza it offers language and living skills to immigrant women.
Sisters of Charity of Saint Elizabeth	1998	Dedication of the memorial in honor of Mother Mary Xavier Mehegan, founding mother of the Sisters of Charity of Saint Elizabeth, in the Abbey Cemetery, Skibbereen, County Cork, Ireland. Sister Eileen Bradshaw, Assistant General Superior, spoke as a representative of the Congregation.
Daughters of Charity, Los Altos Hills Province	1999	Established Mary's House, first Daughters of Charity mission in Alaska at Anchorage.
Sisters of Charity Federation	1999	The Sisters of Charity Federation launched a new project Charity 2000 & Beyond to provide another series of ongoing formation opportunities, including charism retreats, and a retreat at Dax, France.
Sisters of Charity of Halifax	1999	Sister Nuala Kenny was the first Sister of Charity to serve as Deputy Minister of Health for the province of Nova Scotia.
Sisters of Charity of Saint Elizabeth	1999	The Positio Super Virtutibus , a summary of the life and virtues of Sister Miriam Teresa has been sent to Rome and the Informatto , a summary of the Positio has been presented to the Roman relator.
Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill	1999	The Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill dedicated the new Motherhouse, Caritas Christi.
Sisters of Charity of Leavenworth	2000	The Health Services Corporation name changed to Sisters of Charity of Leavenworth Health System.
Sisters of Charity of Nazareth	2000	The Sisters of Charity of Nazareth opened their first mission in Africa, in Botswana. The First Associate fulltime volunteer, Mary Virginia Gish, Sister of Charity of Nazareth Associate, ministers with the congregation in Botswana.
Sisters of Charity of Saint Elizabeth	2000	Celebration of the Tenth Anniversary of Seton Associates of the Sisters of Charity of Saint Elizabeth with an enrollment of 209 members, five of whom have become Sisters of Charity of Saint Elizabeth.
Sisters of Charity of Saint Elizabeth	2000	Presentation of the Elizabeth Seton Founders Award to Sister Hildegard Marie Mahoney, S.C., at the Basilica of the National Shrine of St. Elizabeth Ann Seton in Emmitsburg, Maryland at the celebration of the 25th Anniversary of the canonization of Mother Seton.
Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill	2000	The Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill established The Seton Family with Sister Mary Price as the Director.
Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill	2001	The first Provincial Chapter of the United States Province was held in the new motherhouse, Caritas Christi. Sister Vivien Linkhauer was elected the first Provincial Superior of the United States Province.
Daughters of Charity, Los Altos Hills Province	2002	Established the Daughters of Charity Health System, the first Province of the West Health Care System, based at Los Altos Hills.
Religieuses de Notre-Dame-du-Sacré-Coeur	2002	Sister Auréa Cormier, a member of Religieuses de Notre-Dame-du-Sacré-Coeur, was the first and only French-Canadian Sister to work with Sister Elena Dio, S.C. (Halifax), the Sisters of Charity Federation's first representative at the United Nations.

Province/ Congregation	Year	Event
Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill	2002	The Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill held a Congregational General Chapter in Nam Sun, South Korea. Sister Marlene Mondalek was elected General Superior.
Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill	2002	Offices of the Generalate of the Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill relocated to Chicago, Illinois.
Sisters of Charity of Saint Elizabeth	2003	An inquiry conducted by an Archdiocesan tribunal into the presumed miracle attributed to the intercession of Sister Miriam Teresa. The proceedings will be incorporated into Positio Super Miraculo and submitted to the Congregation for The Causes of Saints.
Sisters of Charity of Saint Elizabeth	2003	Described as an "oasis in the city of Elizabeth," Josephine's Place opened October 1 offering women a warm, safe environment and programs in English, health care, social activities and whatever else to meet the needs of the clientele.
Vincentian Sisters of Charity Bedford	2003	The Chapter of the Vincentian Sisters of Charity of Bedford voted unanimously to merge with the Sisters of Charity of Cincinnati.
Sisters of Charity Federation	2004	The Vincentian Sisters of Charity of Bedford dissolved and the members joined the Sisters of Charity of Cincinnati.
Sisters of Charity Federation	2004	The Sisters of Saint Martha of Antigonish admitted to membership in the Sisters of Charity Federation.
Sisters of Charity Federation	2004	Sister Mary Ann Daly, S. C. (NY), accepted the new position as Administrative Assistant to the Federation.
Sisters of Charity of Saint Elizabeth	2004	Copies of documents concerning the presumed miracles attributed to the intercession of Sister Miriam Teresa Demjanovich, a Sister of Charity of Saint Elizabeth, signed by Archbishop John J. Myer, July 8, placed in the diplomatic pouch of the Apostolic Nuncio and delivered to the Congregation for the Causes of Saints.
Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill	2004	Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill initiated the Makaya Water Project for Fondwa, Haiti.
Vincentian Sisters of Charity Bedford	2004	The Vincentian Sisters of Charity of Bedford dissolved and members took vows as Sisters of Charity of Cincinnati at Villa San Bernardo, Bedford, Ohio.
Sisters of Charity of Leavenworth	2005	Hermana Susana Córdova became the first Peruvian director of the Latin American Missions for the Sisters of Charity of Leavenworth.
Sisters of Charity of Saint Elizabeth	2005	Presentation of the Award for Excellence in Program Services to Sister Alice Sullivan, Sister of Charity of Saint Elizabeth by the March of Dimes for making notable strides in the area of program and services in maternal and child health.
Sisters of Charity of Saint Elizabeth	2005	At a meeting of the Congregation for the Causes of Saints in September, the members issued a "Decree of Validity" officially stating that the documents on behalf of the beatification of Sister Miriam Teresa Demjanovich, a Sister of Charity of Saint Elizabeth, were in order.
Sisters of Charity of Saint Elizabeth	2005	Missioning Service for the Haitian Mission Team of the Sisters of Charity of Saint Elizabeth.
Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill	2005	Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill mobilized their resources to assist the Sisters of the Holy Family in New Orleans who have suffered great devastation from Hurricane Katrina.
Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill	2005	The Sisters of Charity Federation formed a committee to assist in securing the funds needed to complete the Makaya Water Project in Haiti.
Daughters of Charity, Albany Province	2006	Rendu Services New Salem, Pennsylvania, became the first inter-community mission between the Daughters of Charity, the Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill, and the Vincentian Sisters of Charity of Pittsburgh.
Daughters of Charity	2006	The Daughters of Charity of the Albany, Emmitsburg, Evansville, and St. Louis provinces initiated a Visioning for the Mission process with the objective of reconfiguring the community of the future in North America.
Sisters of Charity of Leavenworth	2006	Cristo Rey Kansas City High School began as the newest sponsored ministry of the Sisters of Charity of Leavenworth in the United States.
Sisters of Charity of Leavenworth	2006	Centro San Vicente de Paul dedicated in Piura, Peru, newest Sisters of Charity of Leavenworth sponsored ministry in Peru.
Sisters of Charity of New York	2006	The Sisters of Charity of New York welcomed the congregation's first aspirants from Guatemala.
Sisters of Charity of Saint Elizabeth	2006	Lifetime Achievement Award from the American Heart Association presented to Sister Jacqueline Burns, S.C., in recognition of her extraordinary leadership in the provision of excellent cardiac service to the Northern New Jersey Community with a special commitment to the poor and underserved.
Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill	2006	Sister Rosemary Donley, a Sister of Charity of Seton Hill, was honored in the American Academy of Nursing as a 2006 Living Legend. She has been a Fellow in the Academy of Nursing for over 15 years and has continued to demonstrate continued and sustained contributions to nursing and health care.
Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill	2006	The Vincentian Sisters of Charity of Pittsburgh and the Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill collaborated with the Daughters of Charity, Albany Province, in ministry through Rendu Services in Fayette County, Pennsylvania.
Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill	2006	The Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill began the Seton Arts Service Corps.
Sisters of Charity Federation	2006	The name of the Federation was simplified; Sisters of Charity Federation and formally adopted.
Daughters of Charity, Emmitsburg Province	2007	Sister Carol Keehan, D.C., was the first woman to be voted most influential in healthcare in the United States.

Province/ Congregation	Year	Event
Sisters of Charity Federation	2007	Sister Mary Ann Daly, S.C. (New York), was appointed Executive Director of the Sisters of Charity Federation.
Sisters of Charity of Nazareth	2007	For the first time, Temporary Professed Sisters of Charity of Nazareth (Tertians) from India came to the motherhouse in Nazareth, Kentucky, as part of their preparation for Perpetual Vows.
Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill	2007	Sister Gemma Del Duca, Sister of Charity of Seton Hill, was presented the Educator of the Year Award by Ephraim Kayye, Yad Vashems's distinguished Director of International Seminars for Educators. Sister Gemma was the first non Jew to receive this honor.
Sisters of Charity of Nazareth	2008	The Sisters of Charity of Nazareth held their first General Assembly outside the United States in Bangalore, India.
Sisters of Charity of Our Lady of Mercy	2008	Two Sisters of Charity of Our Lady of Mercy, Sister de Neri Faase and Sister Brendan Lacey celebrated their 100th birthdays, the first sisters to reach that age in the congregation's long history.
Vincentian Sisters of Charity Pittsburgh	2008	The Vincentian Sisters of Charity of Pittsburgh dissolved and members took vows as Sisters of Charity of Nazareth.
Sisters of Charity Federation	2009	The Sisters and Daughters of Charity celebrated the bicentennial of the founding of the Sisters of Charity by St. Elizabeth Ann Seton in 1809.